Weddington Traffic Study

The Town of Weddington contracted with Kimley-Horn and Associates to provide a Level of Service Analysis on 5 intersections within the town limits. The study does not include the funded improvement projects located along Providence Road and Weddington Road. The list and recommended improvements are below.

The current study includes updated traffic counts; some of our roads had sections with counts that were up to 10 years old and several had never undergone a traffic study at all. The most recent traffic study took place ten years ago in 2009 in tandem with the local area regional transportation plan and included projections and counts for the Town of Weddington. Studies revealed that traffic counts are higher in 2019 than what was originally projected for 2030 on some of our roadways.

As part of the study, Kimley-Horn analyzed crash data over the past three years. Potter Road at Forest Lawn had the most crashes with the highest crash type as ‘rear ends’ followed by Beulah Church Road at Twelve Mile Creek with the most crashes caused by a ‘fixed object.’ Antioch and Forest Lawn had the 3rd highest crash rate with the most crashes due to the angle of the intersection; 4th was Antioch Church Road at Beulah Church Road also due to a bad angle. The safest of the five intersections studied was New Town Road at Twelve Mile Creek with the most crashes being caused by rear ends.

Kimley-Horn obtained future volumes using a regional demand model to determine anticipated annual growth. The model includes the proposed Weddington Rd. at I-485 interchange and the Tilley Morris connection to the Waverly Shopping Center Development. The traffic volume projections developed for the AM and PM peak hours at the intersections include existing counts and a linear growth to the 2045 horizon year.

Each intersection was given a grade of A-F based on its volume and seconds of delay (see included charts.) Grades A-D are acceptable, according to NCDOT and F is failing with over a 50 second delay per vehicle.
